

Shawn lived his life with intensity; every single one of his twenty-two years, six months and sixteen days. He was passionate about most everything he did, but none of his many pursuits moved him more than chasing ducks and geese. He was a young gun with boundless energy and optimism for the next hunt he would be embarking on. He will be held close, in the hearts of so many people, people who were fortunate to be illuminated by the bright light that was Shawn Michael Killeaney.

Shawn, we love and miss you so very much.
